

Alexander Krikorian

Career Objective: As a 3D modeller, help make educational video games and bring computer skills into the classroom.

Employment History

Currently employed at: Stemtree Education Center, designing programming and robotics curriculum and tutoring children K-12 in STEM.

220 Maple Avenue West, Vienna, VA.

Supervisor: Dr. Bell.

October 2013 – Present.

Website: stemtree.com

The Mathnasium of Tysons, tutoring math and helping design Stemtree curriculum.

302 Maple Ave W, Vienna, VA.

Supervisor: Dr. Bell.

July – October 2013.

Website: mathnasium.com/tysons

Giant Foods, worked as a bagger, cashier, and self-checkout supervisor.

359 Maple Avenue East, Vienna, VA.

August 2012–August 2013.

Phone: 703-281-9257.

Spring Village Residential Construction site, Construction trainee, Framing a house, drywalling and finish work, using power tools.

Spring Village Drive, Springfield, VA.

Supervisor: Marcial Rubio.

Summer 2012.

Phone: 703-451-3153.

Computer Accessory Store, intern, inventoried and listed on eBay outdated spare parts and laptops, responded to inquiries, and made deliveries for the store.

727 15th St. NW, Washington, DC.

Supervisor: Stanley Senders.

Summer 2011.

Phone: 202-628-4940.

Education: BFA Computer Game Design, GMU, 2018

Volunteer History

Lees Corner Elementary, 13500 Hollinger Ave, Fairfax VA 22033. Phone: 703-227-3500.

Volunteered the week before school to reassemble computers and reconnect them to the internet. August 2011.

Service hours for National Technical Honors Society, setting up computers for online SOL testing, relocating computer lab to another room, and reimaging computers. May–June 2012.

Giving a demonstration on 3D modeling and Google Sketchup to several 3rd grade to 6th grade classrooms. December 2016 – January 2017.